

Soft skills

August 20-21

Raj C Patel
Std.- I-A

The critical thinking and keen observing skills of Raj rightfully bags three cheers for once when a teacher deliberately answered wrong, he was quick enough to connect that the teacher is assessing whether children are paying attention or not.

Std. – I-A (Whole Class)

The entire class deserves a huge round of applause for all the children always join within a few seconds once a session begins as well as the class most of the time has 100% attendance.

Ansh K Patel
Std.- I-C

Once Ansh had to attend the class without parental support and while doing so he struggled to keep the video on. On being instructed by the teacher to simply listen attentively, he did exactly what he was told to do and was quite participative. His attitude towards learning even in adverse conditions and relying upon oneself at this tender age are worth appreciating.

Ayaan B Patel
Std.- II-B

Naksh V Panchal
Std.- II-B

Politeness and consideration for others is like investing pennies and getting dollars back. We appreciate Ayaan and Naksh for demonstrating good manners and polite nature throughout the sessions.

Vyom Shah
Std.- II-B

The self learning and courteous attitude of Vyom truly deserve a huge applause for once he not only attended the class without parental supervision successfully but also helped out the observer teacher to take the revision by telling the page numbers when impromptu she had to take a proxy class.

Shakti K Patel
Std.- III-A

She is a smart girl who always submits all her work on time. We appreciate her for her punctuality.

Rishi R Patel
Std.- III-A

He is very interactive in the class. He always answers questions correctly. Sometimes his ideas which he shares are very innovative and beyond imagination. His communication skills are admirable.

Bhavisha V Vadhvai
Std.- III-B

She is a well mannered child and sits quietly in the class. Her IQ level is excellent.

Kirtan H Patel
Std.- III-B

A brave and intelligent child Kirtan is capable of handling the whole class on his own in the absence of the teacher. He has a sharp mind and always thinks differently from others.

Rishil N Shah
Std.- IV-C

He is a dedicated child who is always ready to help his classmates. One of his classmates was unable to understand the concept so he willingly came forward and offered to explain the concept to his classmate. His explanation was so clear that his classmate's doubts were immediately cleared. His helpfulness is valued.

Nand R Patel
Std.- IV-B

The teacher had sent a wrong list of absentees in the class group. Nand immediately called up the teacher and informed her about the same. We truly appreciate him for using his presence of mind and taking the initiative.

Devdip J Rathod
Std.- III-A

He always greets the teacher and proceeds further. He raises his hand and waits for his turn. This could be the result of good patience. We appreciate him for his patience.

Ishan K Amin
Std.- III-B

Ishan actively participates in classroom discussions. He shows interest in answering all kinds of questions. He is valued for his keenness and involvement in class.

Arya B Patel
Std.- III-C

Arya has shown great improvement and has also changed his attitude towards his teacher. He has become more positive and even answers questions without any hesitation. His willingness to improve is admirable.

Harneel P Trivedi
Std.- IV-A

In the class Harneel could have lied that he had completed his work but he accepted the fact and spoke the truth. His honesty and truthfulness is valued.

Daiwik A Patel
Std.- III-A

He is always attentive and focussed in class. He never misses a single chance to prove himself as one of the best students. His eagerness to learn is worthy of praise.

Divya M Patel
Std.- III-B

Divya can easily grab attention through his agility and smartness. He always uses lexical resources while participating in classroom activities. His speech is also very fluent.

Hetil M Vyas
Std.- III-C

From class participation to HW submission, Hetil is very proactive, is very curious and shows immense craving for learning. His eagerness to learn is admirable.

Anushka M Karamchandani
Std.- IV-A

Even though Anushka remains low profile in class, her talent is seen when she is asked something. She is attached to academics. Her behaviour in class is the clear evidence of her sincerity.

Std. – IV-A&B (Whole Class)

All the students are appreciated since all of them have proved themselves by showing their keen interest in making a model of a desert for SS.

Dhyam M Shah
Std.- V-B

He is appreciated for his confidence and presence of mind at this age. When he noticed that his name was not there in 100% attendance 2019-20, he immediately messaged his class teacher that his name also should be there in the list. Though his mother was not sure and stopped him from messaging the teacher, he stood by his point. Finally it was found that his name was there in the 100% attendance list but due to some technical error, it was not displaying in the main file. He truly is a brave and confident child.

Std. - V-C (Whole Class)

The teacher usually faces network issues. In such situations the whole class shows their maturity and unity by taking the initiative, maintaining discipline and helping the teacher . Their harmony and obedience is valued.

Yashasvi A Patel
Std.- V-C

There were some net work issues faced by the teacher. The teacher made Yashasvi the host, without any hesitation, she took up the responsibility, admitted the teacher and even made the teacher the host again without any help. She is appreciated for her helpfulness.

Parshav M Panchal
Std.- V-C

This kid prepared a PPT on his own for the topic being taught and shared extra information with his classmates. He is also very regular and submits all his assignments before time. He is appreciated for his punctuality.

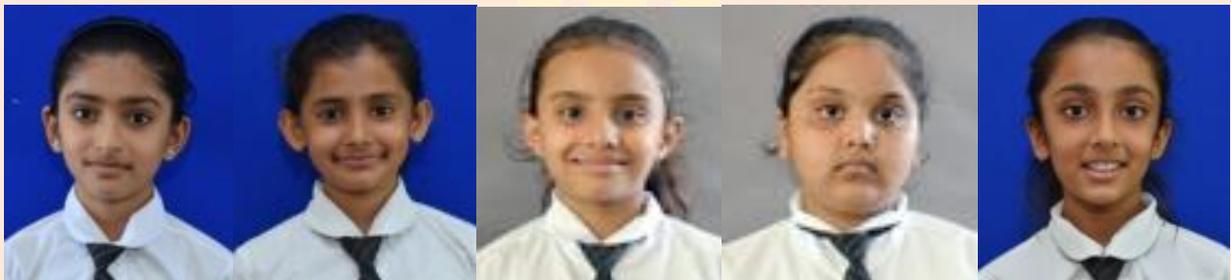

Yug Patel
Std.- VII-C

For Teacher's Day message, the teacher needed few students. Yug took the initiative and distributed the task, instructed the students on behalf of the teacher and even sent the videos to the teacher on time. He truly is a sensible and sincere child.

Vidhi Vyas
Std.- VII-A

Heer Patel
Std.- VII-A

Jina Shiroya
Std.- VII-B

Dhyana Solanki
Std.- VII-B

Ashvi Gandhi,
Std.- VII-B

Nithyashree Puvar,
Std.- VII-B

Radhika Sojitra
Std.- VII-B

Aashvi Patel
Std.- VII-C

Tanisha Patel
Std.- VII-C

Kavya Patel
Std.- VIII-A

Nehakshi Shah
Std.- VIII-A

Khushi Joshi
Std.- VIII-B

Vanshika Patel
Std.- X-A

These kids participated in the Teacher's Day dance and singing. They are appreciated for their promptness, dedication and sincerity. It is not easy to coordinate and follow instructions on a virtual platform. These kids gave their 100% and made Teacher's Day memorable.

Viashnavi Bhatia
Std.- VII-C

Vaishvi Soni
Std.- VII-C

Swara Thakor
Std.- VII-C

Tammana Shah
Std.- VII-C

Vishwa Patel
Std.- VII-C

The above kids prepared PPT's which were related to the topic to be taught. They even conducted the sessions with great confidence. They were well prepared and conducted practice sessions among themselves. Their pre-readiness and willingness to participate in classroom activities is admirable.

Riddhi Patel
Std.- VIII-C

Siddhi Patel
Std.- VIII-C

There is never a session where both of them will never volunteer to take up responsibilities. They eagerly involve themselves in classroom activities and make sure that they put in their 100%. The PPT they prepared for their presentation was very effective as well as informative. They never fail to approach the teacher and ask for suggestions and inputs which when given are promptly followed by them. Their compliance and willingness to take up responsibilities is estimable.

Shreya S Verma, Std.- IX-B

One day in class, the teacher was unable to type a question in Hindi font in the chat box, so the teacher dictated the question. Shreya quickly took up the initiative, typed the question and shared the chat with the other students. We truly admire her for her concern for her class.

Dhruvi Patel
Std.- X-A

Dipanjali Raol
Std.- X-A

Krish Y Patel
Std.- X-A

Sean Covey once stated, "Depending on what they are, our habits will either make us or break us. We become what we repeatedly do." It takes humongous will power and mental strength to transform bad habits to good ones. I appreciate wholeheartedly the monumental yet persistent efforts put up by Dhruvi, Dipanjali and Krish in changing themselves for the betterment. Keep it up, all of you!

Shlok Seth
Std.- IX-B

It takes inner strength and conscience to speak up the truth no matter how bitter it is. I appreciate Shlok to gather the courage and reveal the truth. Keep it up dear, in what so ever adverse conditions you have, as upholding values and becoming a better human being is the most important achievement in life.

Jiya Punjabi
Std.- IX-A

Jainil Patel
Std.- IX-A

To spare personal time and put in efforts so that others get benefitted is a virtue worth having. I appreciate Jiya Punjabi and Jainil Patel to demonstrate the same so that their classmates can be helped out in the holistic growth.

Dhanrajsinh Gohel
Std.- XI-Com.

Yashwi Saraiya
Std.- XI-Com.

They are appreciated for maintaining etiquette of online classes by communication and following instructions given by the teachers.

Kaumil Patel
Std.- XI-Sci.

He is an obedient student always ready to help others. He has been maintaining the attendance register for smooth record keeping.

Shreya H Desai
Std.- XII-Sci.

This girl was the observer for teacher's day celebration. The main student teacher was facing problems with network, immediately she took charge and conducted the class successfully.

Urvi Patel
Std.- XII-Sci.

She is a decent and mature girl. There was a difference of opinion about choosing the activity between her and the subject teacher but Urvi handled it very nicely and did a splendid job.